

Emergence of Informal Leaders

◆ Step 1: What is Informal Leader?

👉 Informal leader = A person who becomes leader without any official position

- ✓ No designation
- ✓ No authority
- ✓ Still people follow them

👉 Example:

In your class, one student explains everything → everyone listens → that person is informal leader

◆ Step 2: What is “Emergence”?

👉 Emergence means how they become leader naturally

- 👉 Not selected
 - 👉 Not appointed
 - 👉 They automatically become leader
-

◆ Step 3: Why Informal Leaders Emerge?

👉 These are the main reasons

1. Knowledge / Skills

- If a person knows more → others follow

👉 Example: Best coder in group

2. Good Communication

- Speaks clearly, explains well

👉 People like to listen

3. Helping Nature

- Helps others → gains trust

👉 People respect them

4. Confidence

- Talks boldly, takes initiative

👉 Others feel “this person can lead”

5. Group Support

- Group accepts that person as leader

👉 Very important point ★

6. In Difficult Situations

- During problems, someone takes charge

👉 That person becomes leader

◆ Step 4: Simple One-Line Idea

👉 “Informal leader emerges when people trust, respect, and follow someone naturally”

- Informal leaders are those who emerge naturally without formal authority.
 - Their leadership is based on influence and group acceptance.
-

◆ Emergence of Informal Leaders

- Due to knowledge and skills
 - Due to good communication ability
 - Due to helping nature
 - Due to confidence and initiative
 - Due to group acceptance and trust
 - Due to situational factors (problem-solving)
-

Super Short Trick to Remember

👉 K H C C G S

- K – Knowledge
- H – Helping nature
- C – Communication
- C – Confidence
- G – Group support
- S – Situation